The Spanish General, Legazpi landed on Bohol Island in 1565, and soon signed a pact with the local chieftain, Datu Sikatuna. There began the Spanish rule in the Philippines which persisted for more than 300 years. A monument with Legazpi and Sikatuna is located along the road. We visit the beautiful Baclayon Church, one of the oldest churches in the Philippines. It was in Baclayon where Christianity first took root in the Philippines. The bus takes us past a few other historical sights and then pass through the highway with an awesome display of thousands of mahogany trees painstakingly planted by the local people. Next stop is the Tarsier Conservation Center where we see the smallest primate in the world. We move on to Chocolate Hills and feast your eyes on the breathtaking work of nature. One thousand two hundred sixty-eight haystack hills which turn brown during the dry season. Finally, we board a boat and cruise the Loboc River. The lunch is served on the boat while enjoying the surrounding scenery of flora and fauna.
