PALAWAN

A stunning collection of over 1,700 islands and islets, Palawan is known for its natural beauty. It boasts lagoons, caves, white-sand beaches, limestone cliffs, lush forests, and crystal-clear waters. The island is home to diverse marine life and is famous for the Puerto Princesa Underground River, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

BORACAY

A tropical paradise spread across a thousand hectares, offering crystal blue waters, powder-white sand, lush palm trees, vibrant flowering plants, and a healthy marine ecosystem. The island is renowned for its breathtaking beaches and vibrant atmosphere.

BOHOL

Combine breathtaking natural beauty, cultural richness, and a relaxed island atmosphere. From the iconic Chocolate Hills and the stunning white-sand beaches of Panglao to serene rivers, hidden waterfalls, and historic churches, Bohol offers diverse experiences for every kind of traveler. It's also home to the tarsier, one of the world's smallest and most fascinating primates.
